

Please don't lift restrictions on cellular use in planes. It's bad enough in bank lines and on buses. The annoyance of the passenger wedged in beside you yacking on his/her cellular for an entire flight can only increase "air rage". Thank you.